John Hayes has experienced success in every aspect of his life and not just on the lacrosse field, although that's what earned him a spot in the Greater Rochester Chapter of the U.S. Lacrosse Hall of Fame. An entrepreneur, husband, father of 10, and grandfather of 12, Hayes still embodies the passion for the game of lacrosse, playing Grandmasters and Super Grandmaster lacrosse. Hayes began to receive recognition for his lacrosse exploits at Clarkstown High School, as a four-year varsity letterman. He earned back-to-back Team MVP honors (1972-73) and was All-County and team captain in 1973.

Hayes moved on to play his college lacrosse at powerhouse Hobart for four seasons and was named an All-American in 1977. While with the Statesmen, he won two national championships (1976-77) and was a finalist the other two seasons (1974-75). He still holds the distinction of captaining the 1977 National Championship team, which was Hobart's last undefeated team at 15-0. That season, Hayes played in the North-South Game and was the recipient of Hobart's Lt. John Vandeverg Memorial Award as the Most Improved player. Hayes finished his college career 12th in all-time goals at Hobart with 118, and 17th in career points with 152 points.

After graduating from Hobart, he broke into the coaching ranks as an assistant coach at the University of Rochester. While completing his MBA, he coached the Yellow Jackets from 1978-79. In the 1980s, he returned to the field as a player with the Westchester Lacrosse Club. Hayes has also continued to coach, overseeing Irondequoit Youth Lacrosse and McQuaid Lacrosse at the modified and junior varsity levels.

Not only has he trained future scholar-athletes in the classroom as a physical education teacher with the Fairport Central School District, but also on the gridiron and lacrosse field as a coach for both Red Raider teams. The former Fairport standout excelled at football, wrestling and lacrosse. He graduated from Hobart College with a B.A. in economics and a master's degree in sports management from Ohio State University. Rothfuss established himself as a premier player while playing at Penfield High School, winning back-to-back sectional titles (1992-93) along with two First Team All-County selections and an All-American nod his senior year. After high school, Rothfuss stayed local and helped the Nazareth College Golden Flyers to consecutive national titles in 1996 and 1997. ## Patty Queener

Personal

Spouse– Harry (2004 Chapter HOF Inductee)

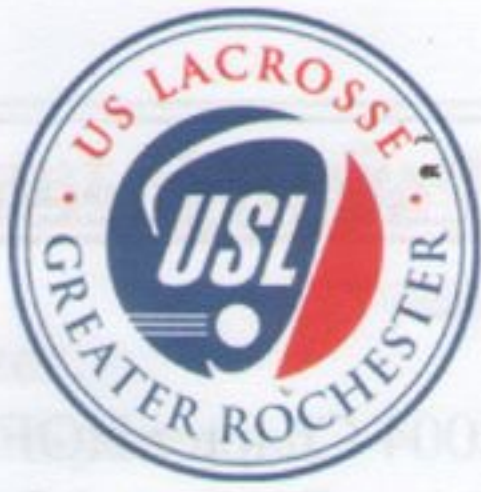

Children– Sarah, Brice, Brett, and Sylvia

- Graduated from Auburn High School
- Graduated from Oswego College

Coaching Career

- Started the Penn Yan girls' program in 1995
- Led the varsity team comprised of 7th & 8th graders to the sectional playoffs in only her second season
- 2 time New York State Champion 1998 & 2004

Patty Queener remembers her 1995 girls' team at Penn Yan with great pride, as they fought to play the game at the high school level. The mother of four began her lacrosse career as a head coach after her daughter Sarah took an interest in the game. With her husband as her mentor, she resorted to fundraising, even wearing football jerseys that first season, in order to found a modified and a club team that first season. In only her second season, she led her team to the sectional playoffs, and would have had her first win, if eligible, with just seventh and eighth graders. In her fourth season, Queener – who was learning lacrosse on the job – won her first of two state titles. Her 1998 team finished with an impressive 24-0 record, defeating powerhouse Garden City. The matriarch of her lacrosse family is in her 18th season as the head girls' lacrosse coach for the Penn Yan Mustangs. During her tenure, she has also won two Empire State Games gold medals and two silvers in six attempts. Patty also is the mother of Penn Yan Academy and professional lacrosse standouts Brett and Brice Queener, and former girls' stars Sarah and Sylvia Queener. She joins her husband, Harry, as a member of the Greater Rochester Chapter of the U.S. Lacrosse Hall of Fame.
