

Press Release: US Lacrosse Greater Rochester Chapter Hall of Fame Dinner

(September 20, 2010) The US Lacrosse Greater Rochester Chapter announces the Class of 2010 Hall of Fame, to be inducted at the annual dinner November 5, 2010 at the Burgundy Basin Inn, Pittsford, NY at 6 PM Online registration: <http://www.uslacrosserochester.org/>
The inductees are Andrew Gallina, Pamela Mapstone, William "B.J." O'Hara and Chris Schiller.

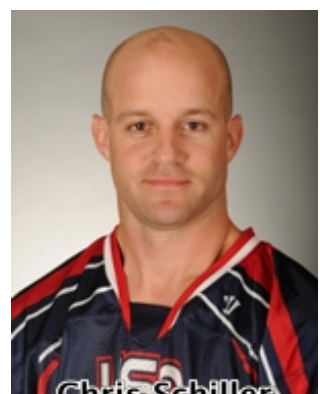

- Andrew Gallina, 1975 Brown University graduate, Engineering degree
- League champion team member, and Brown NCAA appearance
- Irondequoit High School graduate, 2 time All-County, All Up-State, and first Section V All American player
- 30+ years involvement: real estate developer, general contractor and broker, Commercial/Industrial in the real estate market
- Gallina Development owns and operates an indoor sports facility, The Total Sports Experience, currently accommodating 137 lacrosse teams, youth thru adult as well as other sports and activities

- Pamela Mapstone, 1988 Gettysburg College graduate
- US Women's Lacrosse Team member 1989-1991
- All Conference & All Region, All American Lacrosse player
- Gettysburg College: 3 time All MAC and All American selection, averaged 50 goals per season
- MAC leading scorer senior year
- All Conference and All Region All American Field Hockey player
- 2007 Gettysburg Hall of Athletic Honor inductee
- Pittsford Sutherland High School, women's lacrosse coach
- William Smith College, assistant coach
- Knighthawks Girls Lacrosse camp, current director

- William "B.J." O'Hara, 1975 Hobart College graduate
- Hobart: '75 Team Captain, 1st Team AA, '74, 3rd Team AA, 2nd All time leading goal scorer, '75 North South team member
- Head coach: Hobart College, Dartmouth, Alfred University
- Assistant coach: Hobart College and Syracuse University
- Head coach: Rochester Rattlers (MLL) including 2008 Major League Lacrosse Championship Team and Chicago Machine (MLL),
- Member of 9 NCAA Championship coaching staffs
- U.S. Lacrosse Upstate NY Hall of Fame inductee 1995
- Hobart College Athletics Hall of Fame inductee 1998

- Chris Schiller, 1999 Penn State graduate
- All American, MVP and team captain at Penn State
- McQuaid Jesuit High School including All American lacrosse honors
- Member of the 2007 Rochester Knighthawks for 10 years, and Rochester Rattlers for 8 years
- 3 time World Champion 2001 Philadelphia Wings, 2007 Rochester Knighthawks, and 2008 Rochester Rattlers
- FIL World Lacrosse Gold Medal Champion for Team USA 2010
- 3 time Unsung Hero award (2002-03, 2006 and 2008)
- 2007 and 2011 USA Indoor Team member and Assistant Captain